In 1997, following a brief retirement, Father Emmett founded Soaring Eagle, a Public Charity. Soaring Eagle's primary focus was the building of the Heritage Living Center overlooking Ashland, Montana. Completed in 2002, it was designed to provide an assisted living environment for Native American elders. The Center ensures residents have a safe and comfortable environment, healthy meals and enjoyable cultural activities. Most importantly, the center allows these remarkable Individuals to remain close to their friends and family on the reservation, which is critical to preserving the Cheyenne stories and traditions.
