The Josephite's are a society of priests and brothers working in the African-American community in the United States.

Their work began in Baltimore in 1871. Today, they have 83 priests serving in 40 parishes, 9 elementary schools, one seminary in the U.S. and a house of formation in Nigeria. Their work extends throughout the United States, primarily in the Southeast.

The Josephite apostolate is to carry the Gospel of Christ and the sacraments to everyone, to educate children, and to carry out Christ's command to care for the poor, the hungry, and the victims of injustice.
